A hero is someone who can keep his mouth shut when he is right.—YIDDISH PROVERB

Some ancient proverbs which still hold true: From Albert Einstein and others… This one resonates in today’s current political world: We can’t solve problems by using the same kind of thinking we used when we created them. —ALBERT EINSTEIN

This one resonates with Uncle Duffy as well: One of life’s greatest mysteries is how the boy who wasn’t good enough to marry your daughter can be the father of the smartest grandchild in the world. —JUDITH PERL

This one resonates with Uncle Duffy as well: Life is like riding a bicycle. To keep your balance you must keep moving. —ALBERT EINSTEIN

Not everything that counts can be counted, and not everything that can be counted counts. —ALBERT EINSTEIN

A hero is someone who can keep his mouth shut when he is right.—YIDDISH PROVERB

“Don’t be so humble— you are not that great!”—GOLDA MEIR (1898-1978) TO A VISITING DIPLOMAT

When his wife asked him to change clothes to meet the German Ambassador, he said, “If they want to see me, here I am. If they want to see my clothes, open my closet and show them my suits.” —ALBERT EINSTEIN

“Life’s most difficult choices are not whether or not you should do something, but whether or not you can do it.”—ALBERT EINSTEIN

You can’t control the wind, but you can adjust your sails. —YIDDISH PROVERB

You can’t control the wind, but you can adjust your sails. —TOMMY MORRIS

Education is what remains after one has forgotten everything he learned in school. —ALBERT EINSTEIN
