Learning to Love

Why are we afraid to love and be loved? Because we don't really understand what love is and is not. It is possible to love and not hurt. In this class we can learn how loving others is the best way to love ourselves.

Placitas Community Center hosts fun, informative open house

The Placitas Community Center will hold an open house on March 29 from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. to showcase the new addition to the building. Booths will be set up throughout the day to showcase the many activities, groups, and classes held at the center. Information on the services of the Sandoval County Senior Program will be available.

The Community/Senior Center is located at 41 Camino de Las Huertas. Events during the day will include entertainment from 10:00 to 10:30 a.m.; information and discussion on senior services and community activities from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m.; refreshments and entertainment by Los Reyes de Albuquerque from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., and Mariachi entertainment from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m.

The Placitas Volunteer Fire Department will conduct free blood pressure and glucose checks throughout the day. If you have any questions, contact Janice Mortensen, Site Supervisor at 867-1396.
